Work Begins on Millwood in 10 Days

The first phase of construction on the Millwood Reservoir project on Little River in southwest Arkansas is expected to get underway within the next 10 days by Business Associates Inc., of Hot Springs.

The Army Engineers in Tulsa today issued a notice to proceed to the Hot Springs firm for commencing work on the construction of the right abutment access road into the project area.

Work under the contract calls for building approximately two miles of single bituminous surfaced paving, including base course, grading, culverts, subdrainage system, ramps and fences.

The $55,700,000 Millwood project will be a unit of the general flood control plan for Red River below the Denison Dam and is scheduled for completion in 1965.

Castro Peace Feeler; U. S. Barks 'No'

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro's regime has admitted sending out a feeler to President Kennedy for peace talks. The White House gave it the brushoff.

Cuba's economic czar Ernesto Guevara made the approach to presidential aide Richard Goodwin last Friday in Uruguay at a cocktail party after the Inter-American Economic Conference.

Guevara told a radio-TV audience Wednesday night that he informed Goodwin, one of Kennedy's Latin-American experts, that "Cuba is ready to talk" about solving differences.

Guevara said he told Goodwin Cuba "wants to remain within the hemispheric community." But he said he emphasized the Castro regime is determined to maintain its socialist political and economic systems—systems branded by Washington as communistic.

Arkansas Legislature in Session

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The legislative wheels began turning today when the General Assembly convened in special session to figure a solution to the state's financial problems.

Both Senate and House met at 11:30 a.m. with Gov. ORVAL E. FAUBUS appearing before a joint session after organizational matters were taken care of.

Major problem confronting the lawmakers is how to stretch $20 million in available funds to cover a $23.5 million spending program recommended by the Legislative Council after eight days of hearings.

Most of the money would go for construction at state institutions which would have benefited from the $14.5 million omnibus bill, declared unconstitutional by the Arkansas Supreme Court, and from a $60 million bond proposal defeated at the polls.

The $20.3 million would come from $11.7 million in surplus funds plus $8.5 million of the state's continued on Page Four

Job of Special Session Is to Split Up Surplus Fund With the Fewest Complaints

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Legislature, which sliced up a $74.5 million melon in March, returns today to divide the seeds. It is a job lawmakers approach with caution — thankful for the guide lines cut by the Legislative Council in a series of hearings earlier this month.

The theme of the session might well be: "The Voters Are Watching." The widely publicized death of Gov. Orval E. Faubus' $74.5 million spending and construction program has focused the state's attention as never before on the General Assembly's handling of fiscal affairs.

Normally appropriations bills, prepared in advance by a Joint Budget Committee, glide through legislative waters with hardly a ripple. There is likely to be more argument about a $20,000 item for

Pine Bluff Low Bid on River Job

LITTLE ROCK (AP) —Yancy B. Turner of Pine Bluff was the apparent low bidder on an Arkansas River bank stabilization project on which bids were opened by Army Engineers Wednesday. Turner bid $454,240 for the work, which calls for more than one mile of stone and lumber mattress on the north side of the river near Swan Lake in Jefferson County.

No Increase in Taxes, Says Faubus

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus painted a picture of prosperity for the Arkansas Legislature today. He forecast rising revenues with no increase in taxes.

And the governor, in a speech prepared for a joint meeting of House and Senate in the special fiscal session which started an hour earlier, said that the public schools will get $1 million more this year than had been anticipated.

He said the schools would get $8 million in increased revenue.

Faubus also said that other state agencies would get 80 per cent of the budget increases voted them during the regular 1961 session, instead of only 70 per cent as had been forecast earlier.

Public schools and all other agencies should get 100 per cent of the increases next year, the second year of the biennium, Faubus said.

This means, the governor said, that the current special session "can now proceed in good faith and confidence to appropriate the surplus funds now in the state treasury for the purposes outlined in the call and recommended by the Legislative Council."

Faubus discussed the 15 items in his special session call. He took a middle course on one item which may bring a controversy—lack of recommendation for new construction funds for the Children's Colony.

Woodruff County Rep. Jack Oakes quoted Faubus earlier in the day as backing a proposal to give the colony $400,000 in new construction funds.

In his speech, Faubus said, "I am substantially in agreement with the views expressed to me that the state cannot afford at this time such a program (to expand the colony to care for retarded adults)."

Then he added, "However, I do feel that we should continue to expand the colony until it can admit and train all the retarded children in the state, of all sections, creed or color."

The session was called primarily to provide funds to replace the governor's $74.5 million state spending program, invalidated when voters rejected a $60 million bond issue and the state Supreme Court ruled out a $14.5 million omnibus appropriations law.

A hint of controversy surrounded the opening, with some legislators vowing that the University of Arkansas and state colleges wouldn't get any construction money unless the legislature set up a single coordinating board for the educational institutions.

Faubus said he and his advisors had worked carefully on a plan to Continued on Page Four

Air Lane to Berlin Is Challenged

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet Union, in notes to the Western powers, questioned their right to use the air corridors to Berlin as they like, qualified diplomats said today.

The first reaction of the United States, Britain and France was that the new Soviet note was an extremely serious threat to their air access routes to the divided former German capital, 110 miles inside East Germany.

The brief Soviet note delivered to the Western embassies in Moscow Wednesday night, complained that the Western powers are using the air corridors illegally for the purpose of flying spies and troublemakers into West Berlin, diplomatic informants said.

The aim, the Soviet Union was reported to assert was to create difficulties for the Communist East German regime.

Then in veiled fashion, sources said, the Soviet note questioned the right of the Allies to use the air corridors in that way.

The purpose of the Soviet move seemed to be to try to scare the Western powers by claiming that the Russians have the power to block the air corridors.

An authorized British source said this country would regard as an extremely serious matter any Soviet threat to close or interfere with the air corridors linking West Germany with West Berlin.

Informants added that the Russians never before have challenged the Western powers over their rights to carry whom they like by air into and out of West Berlin.

The source said the latest Soviet note injects an entirely new and serious element into the East-West crisis.

Urgent inter-allied consultations on all the implications were being arranged today.

The Foreign Office declined immediate comment on the Soviet note pending its publication by Moscow.

But it was clear that British officials were worried. The contents were at once telephoned to Foreign Secretary Lord Home who is vacationing in Scotland.

Cuba Again Lashes at Guantanamo

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Cuba is expected to use the Tunisian debate in the U.N. General Assembly as a springboard for a new attack today on the continued presence of the U.S. Navy base at Guantanamo.

Informed sources said Cuban Delegate Mario Garcia-Inchausti would charge that the Navy base on the southeast coast of Cuba and other U.S. bases in Latin America threaten the security of Fidel Castro's regime.

The Soviet Union first injected the issue of U.S. bases into the assembly debate on French actions around their naval base at Bizerte, Tunisia. The Soviets charged the worldwide network of bases maintained by the United States and its allies was a menace to world peace and called for its immediate liquidation.

7 Chicago Policemen Convicted

CHICAGO (AP)—Seven former policemen involved in a burglary ring which touched off the Chicago police scandal were found guilty by an all-woman jury on Wednesday night.

The jury, which deliberated less than three hours after a 42-day trial, recommended prison sentences of one to five years for five of the defendants and fines of $500 each for the other two. All were charged with conspiracy to commit burglary and to receive and conceal stolen property.

Criminal Court Judge James B. Parsons set sentencing for today for the five, Allan Brinn, 31, Alan Clements, 30, Frank Faraci, 43, Alex Karras and his twin, Sol, 28. The fines were recommended for Peter Beeftink, 53, and Henry Mulea, 46. It was expected that all seven would appeal.

The case of an eighth ex-policeman, Patrick Groark, 29, who asked for a bench trial, is to be decided by Judge Parsons.

The jury foreman, Lauretta M. Westo, 37, a post office stenographer, told newsmen after the verdict: "There never was any doubt in anyone's mind that they were all guilty." She declined to comment on the variation in sentences recommended.

The defendants formerly were attached to the Summerdale Police District on Chicago's far North Side. They were accused of collaborating with Richard Morrison, 25, who confessed a long string of burglaries, in his activities and carting away some of the loot in police cars in 1958 and 1959.

The state dropped more than a score of charges of burglary, larceny and conspiracy against Morrison in return for his testimony against the eight defendants.

Morrison's allegations in July 1959 led to sweeping reforms of the department under Orlando W. Wilson, a University of California criminologist.

Wilson was hired as superintendent after Police Commissioner Timothy O'Connor resigned, saying that though he was not implicated he felt personally responsible for the activity of the eight policemen.

New Soviet Berlin Note Hints Spying

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new Soviet note on Berlin was being studied by U.S. diplomats today. Informants said it accused the United States of airlifting espionage agents into the city and may be a forewarning of some Soviet tampering with Berlin's air corridors.

The informants, who had been briefed on the note's contents, said it had arrived from Moscow during a 24-hour session Wednesday of Western Big Four ambassadorial group considering the Soviet moves in Berlin and how to meet them.

The note—which has not been made public—accused the United States of provocative acts in Germany, one source reported.

While the State Department declined comment pending a study of the note, a Western diplomat said the document dealt with access to Berlin—a key question in the German crisis.

The Western Allies regard their supply lines to West Berlin as vital—and so far these have not been disturbed by the Communists as they mount pressure on the city.

U.S. officials believe Soviet Premier Khrushchev, in saying he will sign a peace treaty with Communist East Germany by the end of the year, has not made clear what this would do to access to Berlin.

The Western powers say their Berlin rights stem from World War II occupation and cannot be done away with by one-sided Soviet action.

On the grounds that the new East Berlin border restrictions imposed by the Reds Wednesday do not directly impair Western rights, U.S. sources indicated that any response by the Western powers would be limited.

The State Department said the new restrictions follow a Communist pattern, highlighted by the erection of East Berlin border barricades Aug. 13, imprisoning the 17 million East Berliners and the East Germans "behind the barbed-wire and concrete curtains."

The Western commandants in Berlin protested as illegal the new Red regulations, under which the West Berliners and West Germans were restricted in entry points to East Berlin and non-German Western officials were told they could enter at only one crossing.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson was reported to have recommended to President Kennedy a further buildup of U.S. military power in West Berlin.

Johnson reportedly was propos-

Schedule of Hope Schools Next Week

The schedule for teachers and students for next week was announced by James H. Jones, Supt. of Schools as follows:

Tuesday, Aug. 29, 9 a. m. — Principals meeting.

Wednesday, Aug. 30, 9 a. m. — General teachers meeting, High School Library.

Thursday, Aug. 31, 8:30 a. m. — Grades 1, 2, 3, 7, 9, and 10 report to their respective schools.

Friday, Sept. 1, 8:30 a. m. — Grades 4, 5, 6, 8, 11 and 12 report to their respective schools.

All grade school children who were in school last year will report to the same school that they attended last year. Shifts will probably have to be made from one school to another in some cases in order to balance the teaching load in every school.

All school buses will make their regular run on Thursday, Aug. 31 and Friday, Sept. 1.

All children should be home by noon or before on Thursday and Friday.

All students will report on Monday, Sept. 4. A half day schedule will be followed Monday and Tuesday with a full day schedule for Wednesday.

All lunchrooms will open Wednesday, Sept. 3.

Students who have not attended Hope schools before will register before Thursday, Aug. 31. This applies only to Junior-Senior High School.

Peace Corps Funds May Be Reduced

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's Peace Corps measure faces the first of a series of Senate tests today, with the outcome of a move to cut its fund authorization by $15 million in doubt.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said he thought there was a very good chance the Senate would reduce the proposed over-all outlay from $40 million to $25 million.

However, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, assistant Democratic leader, predicted in a separate interview that the legislation would ride through the Senate without substantial change.

Humphrey conceded there may be trouble in the House.

The bill would put the corps on operating under an executive order, on a permanent basis. It is directed by R. Sargent Shriver, the President's brother-in-law. Kennedy's program calls for putting 2,700 volunteers in training or in the field by mid-1962 to help the people of underdeveloped countries attain higher cultural and economic levels.

Chairman J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., of the Foreign Relations Committee told the Senate in bringing up the measure Wednesday he has some misgivings about the program. Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, brought out in questioning that Fulbright had voted in committee to cut the fund $15 million when that proposal was rejected by an 11-6 vote.

Fulbright said he was worried about the lack of "discipline and control" Shriver would have over volunteers who serve in the corps and who might "disagree publicly with the position of their government."

Rival Troops at Barricade in Berlin

By JOHN FIEHN

BERLIN (AP)—An uneasy calm prevailed along the border through Berlin today, but new Communist moves against the Western half of the city were generally anticipated.

American British and French troops faced East German forces along the barricades all night. They were rushed into position Wednesday after the Communists had warned all West Berliners to stay 328 feet back from the border "in the interests of their own safety."

With their weapons at the ready, the Allied troops patrolled the tense border area close to the concrete walls and barbed-wire fences set up by the Reds to prevent East Germans from escaping westward.

Moscow Radio said the Allied patrolling amounted to military provocation. But there were no incidents involving the Allied troops.

West Berlin police said Communist border guards at one crossing point in the U.S. sector threw four tear gas bombs at 40 West Berlin youths listening to a news broadcast from a police truck's loudspeaker. But a strong wind blew the gas back on the Communist side of the fence.

Speculation was widespread that the Communists, after reducing the crossing points through the barricades to seven points Wednesday, would next declare the border an official state frontier and close it to all Westerners, including Allied representatives. Although the Allies contend that all Berlin is still under four-power occupation—of the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union—the Communists claim that the Soviet sector of Berlin is part of "East German sovereign territory."

Officials, troops and citizens of the three Western Allies and foreigners still can cross at the one checkpoint without hindrance, but West Germans and West Berliners need special permits.

Another possible move that appeared to be cutting West Berlin's rail links with the West, which are operated by the Communists. The East Germans charged Wednesday that West Berlin toughs are sabotaging the Red-run elevated train system through West Berlin. Otto Arndt, general manager of the railroads, said if this continues, "serious disturbances" in rail traffic between Berlin and the West could result.

About 27 per cent of the total freight going in and out of West Berlin moves by rail.

A new Soviet note on Berlin delivered in Washington Wednesday reportedly accused the United States of airlifting spies into West Berlin. Observers in the U.S. capital immediately speculated that it foreshadowed some Communist tampering with the air corridors into the city.

Race Tension Is Issue in 'Rider' Trial

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—The State of Mississippi tried to prove today that "Freedom Riders" created a dangerous racial tension here.

The defense countered that the riders had no such intention and even if they had, there were enough law officers to prevent a breach of the peace.

Prosecution witnesses in Hinds County Court testified Wednesday that there was fear of violence at transport terminals, but, under cross-examination, they admitted the riders did nothing to provoke trouble.

The testimony, before an all-white jury, was in the case of

Signals Give Hope for Spaceship

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Scientists counted some dividends from the Ranger I satellite today although it didn't probe as deep into space as intended.

The spacecraft, followed closely by the Agena "space platform" from which it was launched, is whipping around the globe every 91 minutes with a frustrated sun-sensing device.

The Agena—second stage on an Atlas-Agena booster rocket—was blasted into a so-called "parking orbit" Wednesday. It coasted through space until it reached a desired position from which to launch Ranger into a projected orbit reaching half a million miles into space.

But instead of firing for 1½ minutes as planned, the Agena ignited only briefly. This was just enough to separate Ranger from Agena, but not enough to increase its speed from 17,400 miles an hour to the necessary 23,800.

So the two vehicles, traveling close together, spun into near-earth orbits ranging from 105 to 312 miles above the earth.

Officials at first believed the test was a failure because Ranger was not relaying data as it sped far into space on a mission designed to study methods of launching future unmanned and manned vehicles to the moon and beyond.

But as telemetry data was analyzed, scientists reported the No. 1 Ranger experiment—an attitude stabilization system which seeks

Firemen Look, Fire Truck Gone

AZTEC, N.M. (AP)—While Fire Chief Bill Smith and his men investigated fire damage to a truck five miles east of Bloomfield, a youth drove off in the Aztec fire engine.

Smith gave chase in a fireman's car. When the truck was forced to stop, the youth hopped out and walked away. Smith was so surprised he forgot to get the boy's name.

Is Marriage the Answer

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I was a well-to-do, contented bachelor until a year ago, when I fell in love with a girl I met at a barbecue. It was love at first sight for her too. One morning around one a.m. we were returning from a night club when she invited me to her apartment. Later that same morning, I awoke to find her sobbing beside me. When she saw that I was awake she cried that she hated me and ordered me out of her home. I still love her and know she does me but is either to proud, or ashamed to see me again. Should I ask her to marry me, or would that only hurt her more? The worst will visit her soon.

Dear Worried: You two are like frightened children! By all means propose and the sooner, the better!

Dear Helen: I am 14, my sister 16. Is it all right for our Mother to leave us alone to look after our younger brother and two little sisters while she goes to an out-of-town wedding? She would be gone two nights and wants an older lady to stay with us. We were left alone once before, but since then new neighbors moved across the way. Their sons, 17 and 18, don't have the best reputations. Mom fears they will come over if she isn't home. We say "hello" if we meet, but are not friendly otherwise. They brag of their wrong-doings. We feel quite capable of looking after the kids by ourselves. Are we? —Puzzled

Dear Puzzled: You and your sister may be the most dependable, trustworthy teens in the world, but from what you say, those two newcomers are not. Do as your mother says, have the elder woman stay and be thankful she can come. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Sex Education for Teen-

Mrs. Ned Purdie, program chairman, led the program, "Sharing possessions with Tithes and offerings." Mrs. A. B. McCain and Mrs. Perry Moses presented parts. Mrs. McCain read the call to prayer for missionaries having birthdays Aug. 21. Mrs. Harold Brents closed with prayer.

Martha Hairston Circle Meets

Martha Hairston Circle of the First Baptist Church met with Mrs. R. M. Jones on Aug. 21 at 9:30 a.m. Mrs. George Young, the circle chairman, opened the meeting with prayer and introduced the program study on Sharing possessions with tithes and offerings." Mrs. L. F. Higginson, Miss Annie Huntley, Mrs. Mary Jagger and Mrs. J. O. Luck.

Mrs. C. C. Collins was welcomed as a new member. Coffee and cake were served at the conclusion of the business meeting.

Coming and Going

Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Yarbrough and children of Greenville, Miss., arrived Tuesday to visit Mrs. J. C. Broyles.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jones have returned from a vacation trip to Houston and Galveston. The entire family enjoyed an outing at Lake Greeson last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Story are home from Greenville, Tex. where they went with Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Drake of Little Rock to visit the Garrett Story Jr. family.

Mrs. Don Westbrook and children returned home Sunday from Austin, Texas and Jacksonville, where they visited relatives.

Mrs. Lucien Abraham Jr. and children of Eufaula, Ala., are visiting Mrs. C. C. McNeill and Suzanne.

Miss Sybil Johnston of Dallas, is visiting Miss Jan Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Talbot Field Jr. and Cathy left Wednesday for Little Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Neighbors have returned home from a vacation trip to South Texas and Old Mexico.

The Willie Harris family of Washington, D.C. and Hope are vacationing at home here between sessions of Congress.

White House. And so, the House Interior Committee decided Wednesday, that should continue to be its name.

Rep. J. T. Rutherford, D-Tex., had introduced a bill to give the President's home the designation of national monument. He held hearings on the bill as chairman of an Interior subcommittee.

Calling the White House a national monument, Rutherford reported, became a subject of levity. Nobody, he said, wanted the White House to be known either as a museum or national monument.

So, the full committee voted that in its legal description the White House "shall continue to be known as the White House."

The committee angrily deleted words referring to the executive mansion as a national monument. However, Rutherford said, the bill, as approved, gives the White House the status of a monument under protection of the National Monument Act.

Thus, White House furniture, fixtures and decorative objects would be protected by putting them under the jurisdiction of the National Park Service. The agency will be required to store at the Smithsonian Institution such objects as a First Lady may prefer not to use while occupying the mansion.

This provision had the backing of the present First Lady, Mrs. John F. Kennedy.

Rutherford said this would stop such things as find a Madison table in use as a sawhorse in the White House workshop or barrels of Lincoln china broken in the basement.

Soviet Note Poses Threat to Allies

By PRESTON GROVER

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet government poses a threat to the Western Allies' links with Berlin in a note published today.

It said Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's West German government is interfering illegally in West Berlin's affairs, and demanded that agitators be kept from using air corridors into the city.

The 700-word note was delivered to the U. S., British and French embassies in Moscow Wednesday. It said the three countries, "utilizing the lack of control over air communications, are clearly abusing their situation in West Berlin."

"There has been a flagrant breach of the agreement reached in 1945 under which air corridors were set aside for the three Western powers, on a temporary basis, to insure the needs of their military garrisons, and not for subversive and revanchist (revenge-seeking) purposes of West German militarism," it said.

The note was quickly interpreted by Western diplomats here as a sign that one of the demands to be made by the Soviet Union at future negotiations over the Berlin situation will be the banning of transport to any West German representatives into West Berlin.

And it could be presumed that the Soviets would demand the right to screen passengers transported there—as well as transported out. They do not now have that right. It would immediately seal off the major escape route of East Germans who have been assured of a way into West Germany once they got across the border into West Berlin.

The note also was considered another effort to test the nerves and determination of the West in protection of the West Berlin population.

As viewed by diplomats in Moscow, the note appeared to be aimed directly at separating Berlin's Western enclaves from the Western motherland in a drive to make the city more dependent upon East Germany. Berlin is surrounded by East German territory.

If the demands were fully heeded, all West Germans could be excluded, for in Soviet eyes all of them seem to fall into the bracket of provocateurs.

The note said the Soviet government had repeatedly told the United States and the other powers about the "illegal and inadmissible interference of the Federal Republic of Germany in the affairs of West Berlin."

Among the items of interference, the note said, was the repeated appearance of West German officials in West Berlin.

It did not specifically mention last weekend's visit of Adenauer, but stated: "Official representatives of the Bundestag and government of the Federal Republic of Germany also arrive in West Berlin by the air corridors and proceed directly from the airport to make demonstrative 'inspection' tours of the city and make aggressive and hostile declarations against the German Democratic Republic and the Soviet Union."

The note concluded by telling the three Western powers that theirs was the full responsibility and that they should "immediately take measures to terminate the illegal and provocative actions of the FGR (Federal German Republic) in that city."

Westerners in Moscow felt that the Soviet Union was pushing on a point of Allied weakness. The original agreements providing air, land and water routes to Berlin sought primarily to assure provision for the occupying garrisons. By interpretation it has been extended in practice to providing support for the city.

This matter was more directly—although not precisely—spelled out in the agreements reached in 1949 which ended a blockade imposed by the Soviet Union. That blockade was started in an effort to freeze the Allies out of West Berlin. The airlift, combined with a general Western blockade of trade with the Soviet Union and the Eastern European Communist states, finally brought agreement from Premier Joseph Stalin to end thirds majority in both houses to continue.

Such action probably would result only in lawmakers decided to reject the entire council program and write their own.

Several lawmakers have suggested cutting agency budgets back to 1960 levels and apply the $17 million saved to construction. There has been no general support, however, for those suggestions. Persons making them were unsuccessful in an effort to hold the line on budget last winter.

So far, there have been few outside suggestions to legislators. The Arkansas Education Association has stated opposition to a few appropriations items but generally supports the program.

Largest single appropriation recommended by the Legislative Council was $6 million plus for the State Hospital. The University of Arkansas and the seven state-supported colleges would divide $10,850,000 under council recommendations.

Indications are, for the most part, that the General Assembly will stick pretty close to council the blockade.

In that agreement, signed in Paris in June 1949, it was stated that in order to facilitate transport and communication among the different occupation zones and between the sectors in Berlin, the occupation authorities, each in his own zone "will take the measures necessary to insure the normal functioning and utilization of air, water and rail transport."

The West contends this provision has been violated by the barrier erected between East and West Berlin and placed all around West Berlin to seal it off from East Germans.

The new note was looked upon here as only one more step in the preparation of the Soviet position to be taken at coming talks—once agreement is reached on when and where they will begin.

The note was in identical form to the three powers, except for places where each of the countries addressed was mentioned by name. The note to the United States concluded: "The U.S.S.R. government insists that the government of the United States take immediate steps to put an end to the unlawful and provocative actions of the FGR."

The note charged that provocative activity in Berlin has increased and "is assuming such a scope that a threat is created of peace and tranquility in that area being violated."

Hot Giants Have Won 13 Out of 15

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

They may have a long way to go to match that little miracle of 1951, but if you don't think the San Francisco Giants are hot, then you've got to admit there are a couple of awfully cold clubs stumbling along on top in the National League pennant race.

The Giants were resting third, 10 games out of first less than three weeks ago. They still are third but they've won 13 of their last 15 games and have jumped within four games of first-place Cincinnati with a six-game streak—all against the Reds and second-place Los Angeles Dodgers.

After sweeping three from the Dodgers, the Giants made it three in a row over Cincinnati Wednesday night riding in on the three hit pitching of Juan Marichal and unloading five home runs in a record 12-run ninth inning for a 14-0 romp.

If Cincy fans think they've got it bad, Dodgers fans have it worse. St. Louis peeked away from behind for an 8-7 victory over Los Angeles.

Pittsburgh beat Milwaukee 7-0 in the only other game played in the NL. Chicago-Philadelphia was rained out.

In the American League, Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle failed to hit a home run, but Maris broke up a tie with a triple as the New York Yankees beat the Los Angeles Angels 8-6 in 10 innings. Cleveland defeated Detroit 4-2. Baltimore beat Kansas City 7-5 in 12 innings. Minnesota beat the Chicago White Sox 4-0 and Boston belted Washington 9-4.

The Giants had just one hit in the first seven innings against Cincinnati ace Joey Jay, but it was a leadoff home run by Joe Amalfitano and it was good for a 1-0 lead behind Marichal. San Francisco made it 2-0 in the eighth and made it a rout in the ninth as Orlando Cepeda, Felipe Alou, Jim Davenport, Willie Mays and Johnny Orsina hammered homers off Jay (18-8), the loser, and bullpen ace Jim Brosnan and Bill Henry.

The five home runs in one inning tied the major league record set by the 1939 Giants and tied by Philadelphia in 1949. The 12 runs set a modern major league record for ninth-inning scoring, breaking the mark of 11 held by the Giants (1934), Braves (1950) and Yankees (1951).

The Cardinals didn't get the lead until the eighth inning at Los Angeles. That's when they chased Don Drysdale and beat reliever Ron Perranoski in a four-run rally triggered by home runs from Bill White and Ken Boyer and capped by Curt Flood's winning single. Ed Bauta won his first major league decision in relief.

Bob Skinner's inside-the-park home run gave Pittsburgh a 6-6 tie in the eighth and the Pirates then made it two in a row over the Braves on Dick Stuart's two-out single in the ninth against reliever Don Nottebart (4-7-5).

Tax Revenue of Dog Track Shows Gain

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The first half of the 1961 split season at Southland Racing Corporation's West Memphis track produced $381,923 in state revenue, up $17,000 from the first period last year, the state Revenue Department said Wednesday. A total of 245,788 persons bet $6,820,963 during the first 50 day period compared to $6,454,800 bet by 220,889 persons at the same period last year.

When to Fish or Hunt Solunar Tables

'Get Zebra' Is War Cry of Bobcats

By Jimmy Jones Jr.

The Bobcat battle cry yesterday was "Get a Zebra."

Bull Coach John Pierce wasn't as enthusiastic as his young charges who screamed the chant. He commented: "It's good that the boys have spirit, but I wish they would use some of it when they hit!"

Pierce felt that the practice session lacked the polish of previous practices. Pierce said that the blocking wasn't as sharp as it should be. However, he said that he was pleased by the passing.

"Jack Caldwell and Paul Randolph, guards, are steadily improving and are showing good hustle," Pierce said. He added that Charles Boggs and Dan Jones are doing a good job.

Pierce said the backfield are coming along with their plays and their timing. He said David Porterfield and Richard McDowell looked good in yesterday's practice.

"Don Vaughn is working hard and improving daily. Charles Dugley came out for practice and is going to add strength and depth to our backfield," Pierce said.

Hope Boys in Texarkana Tourney

Attending the Texarkana County Club Boys Junior Golf Tournament, Tuesday, Aug. 22, from Hope were: Charles Carver, Mickey Baher, David Waddle, Fred Ellis, Jimmie Pilkinton, Terry Hairr and Sammy Strong.

Charles Carver placed second in his age group and Sammy Strong placed second in his age group of 11 to 13 years.

Prizes were awarded second and third place winners and trophies for first place.

Firestone Tourney Not for T. Bolt

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Golfdom's top professionals will start hammering away at the Firestone Country Club's top par-70 layout today in a bid for prizes totaling $50,000.

Missing from the field of 97 starters in the American Golf Classic, however, will be Tommy Bolt, the one with the terrible temper. Bolt was given a retroactive 30-day suspension Wednesday which will keep him off the tournament trail until the end of the month.

The Professional Golfers Association Appeals Committee administered the rather mild penalty for his use of profanity during the PGA Tournament in Chicago last month.

The Firestone course, which totals 7,165 yards, is the same layout where Jay Herbert captured the 1960 PGA title with a 72-hole score of 281—one over par.

All the champions will be competing in the tournament. The group includes U.S. Open winner Gene Littler, Master's champion Gary Player, PGA titlist Jerry Barber and British Open king Arnold Palmer.

NEW YORK (AP) — Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle have the advantage of friendlier parks in their twin assault on Babe Ruth's home run record, but they are hitting against pitchers as formidable as those in the Bambino's record breaking season of 1927.

Ruth slamed a majority of his 60 home runs off mediocre pitchers. The outstanding American League hurlers of 1927, such as Lefty Grove, Ted Lyons, Bump Hadley and Willis Hudlin, were stung with Ruthian run drives.

Mantle and Maris also have been fattening up on second rate pitchers. Such stalwarts as Frank Lary, Jim Bunning and Don Mossi of Detroit; Don Swallow of Boston; Chuck Estrada, Skinny Brown and Milt Pappas of Baltimore; Jim Grant and Barry Latham of Cleveland, and Camilo Pascual and Jack Kralick of Minnesota have more than held their own with New York's M and M boys.

Harris was feasted on such as Washington's Pete Burnside (3), Los Angeles' Eli Grba (2), Boston's Gene Conley (2), and Chicago's Russ Kemmerer (2) and Cal McLish (2). Mantle's "cousins" have included Grba (2), Pedro Ramos of Minnesota (2) and Carl Mathias (2), formerly of Washington.

Among Ruth's 60 were four homers each off Milt Gaston of St. Louis and Rube Walberg of Philadelphia; three each off Hollis Thurston of Washington and Tom Zachary of St. Louis and Washington. Slim Harris and Tony Welker of Boston, Tommy Thomas of Chicago, Ken Holloway of Detroit and Joe Shaute of Cleveland. Of these only Walberg and Thomas were top-flight pitchers that year.

Ruth's home runs had to go a longer way. The American League stadiums in 1927 were larger than they are today. Yankee Stadium's right field home run sector, where all three sluggers hit many of their home runs, was reduced by some 30 feet in 1936 with the extension of the stands. Ruth was left-handed, like Maris. Mantle is a switch-hitter.

In the right center and center sectors of other parks, Washington's Griffith Stadium is now 25 feet closer, Boston has a 45-foot shorter range, Chicago 25 feet, Cleveland 60, Detroit 25, Kansas City is 45 feet shorter than Philadelphia in right center and Baltimore is 25 nearer than St. Louis.

Ruth walked 138 times and struck out 89 times in 1927. Maris has 75 bases on balls and 52 strikeouts this season while Mantle has walked 103 times and fanned 87. All figures are complete through Wednesday night's games.

Colonel Is Cleared in Tower Fall

NEWBURGH, N.Y. (AP) — The law officer presiding at the court-martial of Col. William M. Banks, 46, today found him innocent of neglect in the collapse of a Texas Tower in the Atlantic Ocean Jan. 15.

The finding still is subject to approval by the board of officers of the court.

The court recessed after the finding by Col. Jean Rydstrom and was to resume later today for a decision by the eight officers comprising the board.

The prosecution concluded its arguments at 9:30 a.m. and the defense immediately moved for dismissal of the charge.

The collapse of the tower in a storm of the New Jersey coast cost 28 lives.

Maris Loses Homer But Yanks Win

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Roger Maris missed his 51st home run by only a few feet with a 400-foot drive that fell for a tie-breaking triple Wednesday night as the New York Yankees defeated the Los Angeles Angels 8-6 in 10 innings and regained a three-game lead in the American League race.

Cleveland stopped the second-place Tigers, who had won five in a row, 4-2 on a fifth-inning home run by Johnny Temple.

Baltimore outlasted Kansas City for a 7-5 victory in 12 innings. Minnesota rapped the Chicago White Sox 4-0 behind the two-hit pitching of Camilo Pascual, and Boston belted Washington 9-4.

In the National League, San Francisco who hit six in a row by whipping first-place Cincinnati 14-0. St. Louis handed the Los Angeles Dodgers a ninth straight loss, 8-7, and Pittsburgh beat Milwaukee 7-6.

Maris, who walked three times, struck out once and grounded out in his first five trips to the plate, capped a Yankee comeback with his 10th-inning wallop off losing reliever Jim Donohue (4-6). The triple scored Billy Gardner, who reached base on a fielder's choice, and Maris then came across on a wild pitch. Maris now is 12 games ahead of Babe Ruth's record 60 pace of 1927 and four home runs ahead of teammate Mickey Mantle who struck out three times, walked twice and doubled.

Bill Skowron was the Yank slugger, driving in four runs, three with a sixth-inning home run after the Angels had built a 6-1 lead against 21-game winner Whitey Ford.

The Indians ended their losing plunge at four of Temple's tie-breaking, two-run shot off Don Mossi (13-3), the Tigers southpaw ace, Barry Latham (10-3) and Frank Funk checked Detroit on six hits, one Ricky Colavito's 34th home run.

Jim Gentile powered the Orioles. The slugging first baseman walloped two home runs, for a total of 38, a single and a double. He came across with the winning run on Ron Hansen's single after he had opened the 12th with his two-bagger off losing reliever Bill Kunkel (2-3). Billy Hoelt (4-3) was the winner.

The White Sox managed no more than a second-inning single by Al Smith and a two-out, ninth-inning single by Sherm Lollar off Pascual (11-13), who struck out six and walked three for his fifth shutout. A two run single by Zoilo Versalles settled it for the Twins in the second inning against Cal McLish (8-12).

Big 3 Stand Firm on Bid to Reuther

By DWIGHT PITKIN

DETROIT, Mich. (AP) — General Motors, Ford and Chrysler stood pat today on their labor contract offers to the United Auto Workers against mounting pressure from the union that the companies come up with something better or face strike action.

Present contracts covering almost 500,000 workers at Big Three plants expire next Thursday night.

UAW leaders centered their fire on GM and Ford—the likeliest candidates for strike targets. In the meantime, UAW President Walter Reuther bargained under a lid of secrecy with American Motors Corp. on the company's profit-sharing offer.

UAW Vice President Leonard Woodcock filed unfair labor practice charges Wednesday against GM with the National Labor Relations Board here after the company for the third time rejected a union demand for information on prices and profits. Woodcock accused GM of failing to bargain in good faith. He said the union needed information on the company's price-profit formula to counter company claims the union's bargaining goals were inflationary.

UAW Vice President Ken Bannan told Ford his offer was "totally unacceptable." He said union negotiators would recommend its rejection by the UAW-Ford National Council, which has been called to meet here next Tuesday.

The UAW's executive board will meet on the same day to pick a target in event the union leadership decides to back up contract demands with strike action.

Louis G. Seaton, GM vice president for personnel, said a news conference to defend the company's contract offer against a barrage of union criticism that it was "woefully inadequate."

Seaton accused Woodcock of "calculated misrepresentation of the facts."

Woodcock, in a union news conference, said the New Jersey coast cost 28 lives.

Arkla Village Roundup to Feature Crack Shot

Capt. Harold M. Terry

Captain Harold M. Terry of the Caddo Parish Sheriff's Department, one of the Southwest's outstanding shooting experts with pistol, rifle and shotgun, will be one of the star performers at the Arkla Village Roundup Saturday, August 26, it was announced.

Terry, who is the firearms training officer for the Caddo Parish Sheriff's Department for the past six years, has been (thrilling audiences for a number of years with his expert marksmanship. Highlights of Terry's act include hitting targets with a pistol upside down, sideways, between his legs, and looking through a mirror. Terry also makes "coke slaw" out of a head of cabbage using a 30-06 rifle, hits grapefruits, cantaloupes, oranges and lemons with a rifle.

In addition to his duties with the sheriff's department, Terry directs Caddo Parish Sheriff Flounroy's junior rifle program. The program is designed to teach safe gun handling to youngsters from 6 to 18 years old.

Power Swap With TVA Is Likely

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — It will be up to the Tennessee Valley Authority to decide whether a surplus power exchange proposed by 11 private companies will become a reality.

The exchange, disclosed Wednesday by Paul O. Canaday, president of Arkansas Power & Light Co., envisions 1 1/2 million kilowatts and an expected annual savings of $150 million.

The private companies are members of the Southwest Power Pool (SPP) and serve customers in Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas.

They proposed an off peak exchange of power with TVA—with the federal system to provide its surplus power to pool members in the summer months and the SPP would provide surplus power to TVA in the winter.

Canaday said TVA has surplus power in the summer while the private company's have their lowest usage in the winter months.

The proposed exchange was made in a letter to Gen. Herbert D. Vogel, TVA chairman, Canaday said.

U. S. Bombs Found in Africa Raid

By DENNIS NEED

AMBRE-MIOLE, Angola (AP)—Two nationalist rebels pointed angrily at the red label on the remains of a fire bomb that had wiped out this little mud hut village in the rolling hills of northern Angola.

The label said: "Property of the U.S. Air Force."

Angolan rebels claim hundreds of similar bombs have been dropped by Portuguese war planes to burn out nationalist strongholds. The Portuguese acted after rebel groups killed many Portuguese settlers in the area.

There is no explanation of how the U.S. bombs came to be used, although Portugal, as a partner in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, has received U.S. military equipment.

The nearby village of Fuesse-Luangu was a local rebel headquarters. It was destroyed July 29. The rebels said five planes flew low over the little collection of huts, dropping bombs with deadly accuracy. The only opposition was a volley of musket fire from guerrillas hiding in a wood.

Charred rebel documents still lay scattered among the ruins when an Associated Press reporter and photographer reached the village after a three-day march from the Congolese frontier.

Strangely, no one in Fuesse-Luangu was killed by the Portuguese aerial bombardment. Many fled to the Congo. Some 400 people from this and other destroyed villages now are crowded in a swampy forest encampment.

When the AP men entered the camp with a rebel escort, they were welcomed by a nationalist honor guard and a speech by Andre Casimiro, 58, nationalist leader in the region of San Salvador.

A few families have erected rough shelters under the trees. They draw water from a muddy stream and collect manioc and other vegetables from plots surrounding their abandoned villages.

Before the rainy season begins next month, most families in the forest camp will have collected their belongings in great bundles and set off toward the Congo, Casimiro reported. An estimated 150,000 Angolan refugees already have left the country and hundreds more are streaming north every week.

Lunch For Back-To-Schoolers

School days are here again! One of the golden rules on the state is a well balanced meal at noon. It's important to replenish the youngsters' energy supply so they will be alert and attentive in school.

Children leave from school at noon are usually limited in time as lunch must be ready to eat the moment they arrive. Canned condensed soups... served plain or fancy... fit this need so well. Mother appreciates their ease of preparation, too. And with the wide selection of canned soups available you can safeguard against lunchtime monotony.

For today's lunch feature canned condensed vegetable soup made heartily with ground beef and to go along... melted cheese on crackers. A selection of crisp carrot and celery sticks is a nice accompaniment.

Chutneys and fruit with a glass of cold milk score a high grade for dessert.

School Day Soup Bowl

2 1/2 pound ground beef
2 1/2 teaspoon leaf oregano, crushed
1 can (10 3/4 ounces) condensed vegetable soup
1 soup can water
Salt and pepper
Brown meat with oregano, stirring to separate meat particles. Add soup and water; heat, stirring now and then. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

L. R. Votes Industrial Bond Issue

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Little Rock is due for a new industrial plant, first major new industry to come to the Arkansas capital since the 1937 integration dispute.

Residents of the city voted 5,107 to 250 Tuesday in approving a $1.4 million revenue bond issue to finance a plant for Jacuzzi Bros., Inc., manufacturers of pumps and auto dealer who offered a purse of $3,675—$100 a mile—for the winner, claimed Erikson set a world record for open water long distance swimming.

Mrs. Erikson said her husband, employed at the Armour Research Foundation, has been swimming for 15 years. His previous record in long distance swimming is 15 miles in 12 hours.

swimming pool equipment. Light rain which fell most of the day kept many of the city's 42,372 qualified voters from going to the polls.

The bonds will be retired by rental payments on the plant. The facility will employ about 400 workers and will have an annual income of between $2 million and $2.5 million. It will be located on a 46-acre site about seven miles south of the city.

Margaret Turns 31st Birthday

LONDON (AP)—Princess Margaret was 31 today, a few weeks from motherhood.

Expecting their first child in late September or early October, the princess and her husband, Antony Armstrong-Jones, spent the day with the rest of the vacationing royal family at Balmoral Castle, the royal family's Scottish residence.

A picnic lunch was planned, weather permitting, and there will be a birthday dinner tonight.

Bridegroom Is 103, Bride 65

CLINTWOOD, Va. (AP)—Booker Wright, 103, leaned just a little on his cane as he stood before the minister and repeated his marriage vows.

The retired farmer from Virgie, Ky., was married Monday in the Clintwood Baptist Church to Elsie Coleman, 65, of Pikeville Ky., the seventh marriage, the bride said, for each.

Asked where they would spend their honeymoon, Wright replied: "She's all the honeymoon I want. We're going home."

Michigan Lake Swim First Time

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind. (AP)—Ted Erikson, 33, a rocket fuels engineer whose hobby is swimming, was pulled out of the choppy, rain-splashed waters of Lake Michigan Tuesday night after completing a grueling swim of 36 hours and 37 minutes from Chicago.

Erikson, the first person ever to swim across the southern tip of Lake Michigan, was cheered by a crowd of several thousand who had waited in a heavy rain.

Erikson, 5-11, 210 pounds, had covered some 40 miles although the official distance from Chicago to the finish line is 36 miles.

Married and the father of two, Erikson wanted to go home—and take a shower. Instead, he was taken to a hospital where he was given oxygen and a sedative for sleep. He was reported in excellent condition.

"I don't want to go to the hospital," he had told his wife, Loretta who had coached him from a boat during the long swim. "I want to go home."

"I thought I was going to get a shower," he said, adding he felt fine—just a little sticky from the grease smeared on his body to help insulate him from the cold water.

Erikson and five other swimmers, including two women, started the fifth annual Lake Michigan swim challenge at 4 a.m. Monday from Chicago's Burnham Park. One by one, the other five dropped out.

DENIM MEN OF AMERICA

THE CLOTHES WE WEAR

Latest fashion news for Fall is a man's business suit made of denim—the first revolutionary use of natural fibers in years. America's 1,100,000 apparel production workers (many denim-clad themselves) produce the greatest variety and quantity of clothing in the world. 21,000,000 dozen shirts and 15,000,000 dozen blouses alone are made yearly, for the market where Americans invest an annual $23 billion in clothing and accessories—women and children spending twice as much as men and boys!

Almost non-existent before 1920, informal wear now accounts for half all sales of men's clothing: 2 out of every 3 shirts are for sports wear. Given to charity in the end, $100,000 worth of used clothing is exported annually to underdeveloped areas such as Africa—where worn American shorts sell for 20 cents!

SHIP LAUNCHED TWICE

Minus bow, stern and bridge, new hull slides into Greek waters.

Christened WORLD CHARITY by 18-year old Princess Irene of Greece, a 22,000-ton ship for carrying bulk cargoes slides down the ways at Skaramanga near Athens. But part of the huge vessel had already been launched when the Princess was only a year old—and half a world away.

In 1943 at Portland, Oregon, the 16,600-ton tanker OWYHEE first took to the water. She was one of hundreds built to meet the fantastic fuel needs of World War II. Thus, she helped the Allied liberation of Greece from the Nazis. For 15 post-war years as the OWYHEE and later the WORLD TREATY of the Niarchos fleet, she served the vital commerce of the free world. With her Greek crew she was part of the little nation's famous "invisible export" seafaring.

Now tankers of this type are obsolete, so the Hellenic Shipyards of shipowner Stavros Niarchos has built a new cargo section to replace the middle two-thirds of the original ship, retaining the valuable machinery, quarters and navigational equipment. The WORLD CHARITY will carry 50% more tonnage at the same speed. Her cargoes, however, will be grain, coal and ores which are in great demand. In that trade her size and speed will place her in the forefront of competition.

Already employing 4,000 men, and planning to build four similar ships a year, Greece's first heavy industry of modern times has proved again that the resourcefulness which inspired Europe's first maritime nation 25 centuries ago is still at work.

Spaceship Fails to Make Orbit

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The United States orbited a satellite launch platform today but it failed to fire a second payload into space as planned.

A 102-foot Atlas-Agena rocket thundered skyward from Cape Canaveral at 5:04 a.m. and the entire Agena second stage whirled into orbit.

Later it was to have injected a 675-pound payload called Ranger I toward a million-mile round trip journey into space.

More than three hours later the National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced that the space craft had failed to separate from the Agena stage.

A statement said the Ranger and Agena are in a near-earth orbit rather than the highly eccentric orbit planned for the flight.

Officials said radio data from the orbiting vehicle is being analyzed to determine why Ranger I did not separate.

"Primary mission of the flight was to test operation of the space craft. Since data are being received it is likely that this objective will be achieved in part," they said.

Earlier James D. Burke, Project Range manager, had reported all communication lost. At that time it could not be determined whether any part of the device had gone into orbit.

The last affirmative word, some 50 minutes after blast-off, had been that the second stage of the big booster had fired on schedule a second time, after cutting off as planned for a coasting interval. The second firing was to have injected the package into orbit for the launching of the piggyback rider.

NASA had hoped the flight would prove the feasibility of the space launch platform system and test techniques for sending future space vehicles to the moon, Mars and Venus.

Another rocket and payload, Ranger II, are available to repeat the mission. That effort is tentatively set for late fall.

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — A powerful Atlas Agena rocket blasted skyward today in an effort to orbit a satellite from which a second payload was to be fired deep into space. The purpose is trajectory.

U. S. Eyes Guiana Chief Suspiciously

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States intends to keep an eagle eye on newly elected Premier Cheddi Jagan to see whether he will try to steer British Guiana into the Communist bloc.

If Jagan tries to link up with Moscow, Peiping, representations can be made to Britain to postpone complete independence for the newly emerging South American country.

If Jagan's Marxism turns out to be a more independent variety, Washington may swallow its distaste and treat Guiana as a member of the hemisphere family. Jagan, an open admirer of top Communist, of Cuba's Prime Minister Fidel Castro and of Marxism, is slated for a formal

Kennedy in Close Look at Berlin

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy was reported today to be keeping a close watch on reports of new East Berlin travel restrictions.

Aides declined immediate comment pending a study of official dispatches and consultations with the Western allies.

A Western Big Four ambassadorial working group which has been considering the German issue planned to meet at the State Department.

A major consideration for U.S. strategists was just how far the new Red restrictions go. The Allies have been following a policy of tailoring their reactions to Red pressure on Berlin in accord with the importance of Communist acts.

The Red East German regime said that under its new restrictions, West Berliners would now have to get passes from the East Germans in order to enter East Berlin. Foreign diplomats and occupation personnel were told they could enter East Berlin only through one check point.

The Western Allies were still considering ways and means of getting into negotiations with the Soviets for a peaceful settlement

Start Picking Jury for 'Riders'

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Attorneys begin selecting a jury today for the first "Freedom Rider" appeal trial in Hinds County Court in the wake of an overruled defense move to toss out the jury list.

Henry Thomas, 19, Negro student at Howard University, Washington, D.C., appealed his city court conviction on breach of peace charges.

He arrived in Jackson May 24 in the second of two busloads from Montgomery, Ala., the first of the crisis.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk predicted again at a news conference Tuesday that "there will be negotiations."

wave of the riders to move into Mississippi. A city judge fined him $200 and suspended a 60-day jail sentence after police arrested him for refusing to leave a segregated waiting room in a bus depot.

County Judge Russel Moore overruled a motion to wash the venire Tuesday. He said the defense failed to prove discrimination in selecting jurors.

Several attorneys testified Negroes were called to serve on petit juries, Moore said, but that most of them were excused, challenged or dismissed regardless of the attorneys.

The judge said several Negroes "testified they had not been called to serve on a jury. The court does not find this to be common among the Caucasians race."

2,924-Mile Canadian Train Trip

"We're in the passenger business to stay," Pierre Delagrave, General Passenger Sales Manager of the continent-spanning Canadian National Railways, promises. Delagrave said the Canadian National will go "all out" to attract travelers to trains in Canada. Above is the "Super Continental" which operates daily between Montreal and Toronto and Vancouver, British Columbia — 2,924 miles — entering the Athabasca Valley in the foothills of the Canadian Rockies.

Morse Hits Catholics on Schools

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., says Francis Cardinal Spellman "has to take his share of responsibility that we haven't passed" education bills for public or private schools.

"I don't intend to let His Eminence shift it to my back," he added.

Morse's remarks came Tuesday in a Senate speech replying to the New York prelate's statement issued Monday.

In it, Cardinal Spellman said there was no truth in a charge Morse made Aug. 14 that top-ranking Roman Catholic clergy are opposed to improving public schools. He also described Morse as "an old friend (who) has turned against us."

"I want to say to the cardinal I stand on the same platform on this issue I've always stood on," said Morse, chairman of the Senate Education subcommittee. "I am as ardent a supporter of federal aid to private schools by way of subsidized loans as I've always been."

In his Aug. 14 speech to the American Federation of Teachers in Philadelphia, Morse said the Catholic hierarchy sought to block the legislative aims of a majority of our people through pressure tactics.

Cardinal Spellman said in his statement that "one of the most unfair pressures was Sen. Morse's ill-conceived and ill-timed warning that continued opposition will cause a flare-up of religious bigotry."

Morse, a Congregationalist, reiterated Tuesday his contention that Roman Catholic intervention in the school aid debate this session had hurt prospects for passage of an education bill this year for public or private schools.

"I don't think the position taken by the cardinal has been at all helpful in advancing education bills for public schools or private schools," said Morse. "He has to take his share of the responsibility that we haven't passed a bill for either."

Nehru Sides With Soviet on Berlin

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru indicated today he believes the Communists have the right to control movements between West Berlin and East Berlin and between West Germany and Berlin.

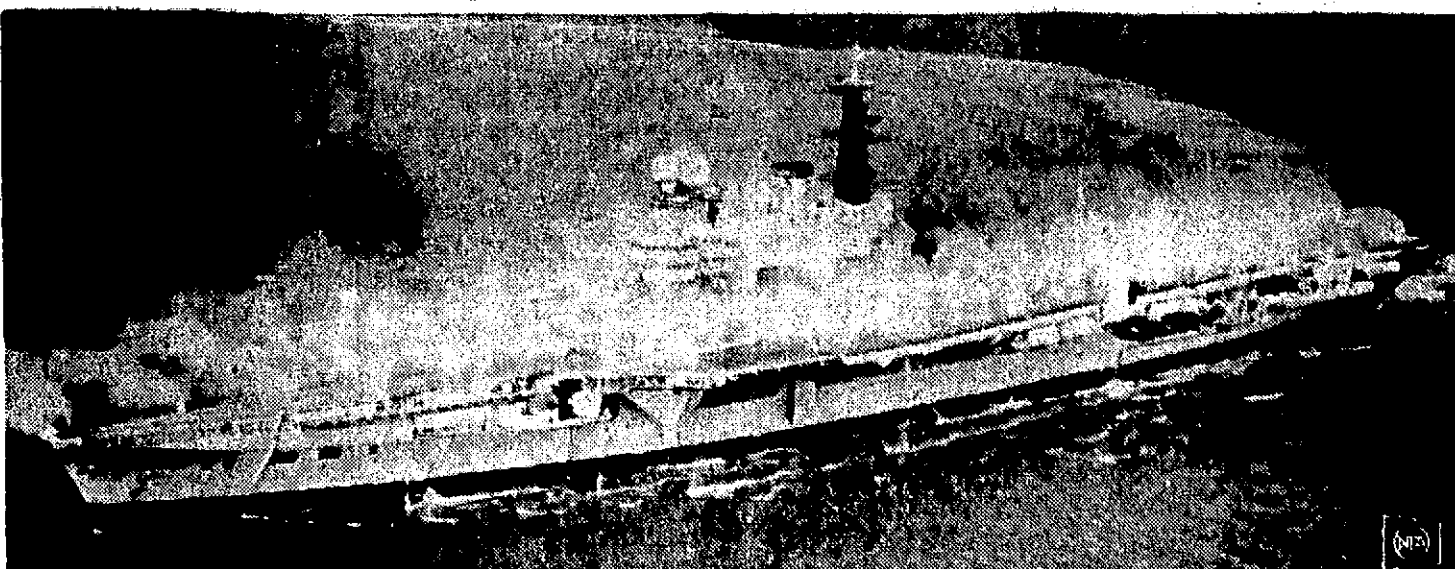

Winding up a foreign affairs debate in Parliament, Nehru asserted that Western access to Berlin is "not a right but a concession by the Soviets." German occupation zones only granted the Allies the right to occupy Berlin, and free access between the Western zones and Berlin was granted by the Soviets a year later.

Long Terms for Cuban Rebels

HAVANA (AP) — The Cuban government has asked prison terms of 10 to 30 years for 74 persons, including two Roman Catholic priests and a number of students, charged with plotting against the regime of Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

All are accused of working against Castro "under the influence of the Church and the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency."

Heading for Socialism, Says Alford

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rep. Dale Alford, D-Ark., told the Little Rock Kiwanis Club Tuesday the nation is being eased down the road to socialism and communism through "revolution by ideology."

"In all charity I say that some individuals, however well-meaning they may or may not be, are very mistaken in their ideas relative to communism," Alford said.

"Communism is not just another political party," he said. "Communism is not a disease of poverty. It is instead, a disease of the mind."

Alford spoke of "fuzzy minded socialist thinkers" who use "such beguiling terms as social legislation and progressive legislation."

He said the terms were "cunningly devised" to mask the real purposes. "The bait is humanitarianism," he said. "The hook is loss of freedom."

"Now I am not against everything government does but I am alarmed that government control of the means of production has reached the saturation point," he declared.

"Freedom to me means cutting government down to size to give full play to our American conception of making a profit."

Fish Poaching Suit Withdrawn

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A suit alleging infringement of fishing waters filed last November by the Old River Club near Scott was withdrawn from Pulaski Chancery Court Tuesday. No reason for the withdrawal was disclosed.

The suit had named as defendants the developers of a nearby housing subdivision and some persons who had purchased lots in the subdivision. The club is located on the north end of Old River Lake.

Rightist Bombs Sprinkle Paris

PARIS (AP) — Fourteen plastic bombs exploded across Paris early today in a new expression of right wing opposition to President Charles de Gaulle's liberal Algerian policies.

No one was injured by the blasts, but property damage was heavy from the putty-like plastic on the outside of buildings housing Gaullist politicians, writers and other liberal personalities.

12 Japs Boats Taken by Soviet

TOKYO (AP) — Soviet patrol boats seized 12 Japanese fishing boats off the east coast of Japan's northernmost island of Hokkaido today, the Maritime Safety Agency reported.

The agency said three speedy Russian boats dashed into a fleet of about 250 fishing craft operating near the Russian-held Kurile Islands and captured 12 of them.

Debutante Calls Off Wedding

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Georgine (Gigi) Gorman, 18, and her family today planned a short vacation "to get away from things and think for a little while."

The pretty debutante was to have been married a week ago to Robert M. Oliver III but left a note and disappeared after the wedding rehearsal.

She drove her father's sports car to Columbia, S.C., where he picked her up and brought her home.

"I'm terribly embarrassed but I'm most concerned about what's right for Gigi," said her mother, Mrs. Harold Dale Gorman.

"She is only 18 and she didn't start going with Bob until July."

so it may have been to hurried, too quick."

Gigi's mother said 400 wedding gifts are being returned and wedding plans are off.

No Pirating of Industry Under Law

MARION, Ark. (AP) — The new federal area redevelopment act was not designed to allow "pirate" industries from other sections, two officials of the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission said Tuesday.

William R. Legg, AIDC senior administration said the redevelopment act was a "last resort" which communities could use after exhausting all other means of financing industrial expansion.

Legg and C. M. Smith, AIDC chief of services, spoke to a group of Crittenden County mayors who met to see if they could use the measure to get new industry to locate in the county.

Crittenden and 20 other counties in Arkansas have been declared eligible for assistance under the act which provides for loans or grants for sewer, water and electrical system expansion, access roads or other items which would enable industry to locate or expand in depressed areas.

"There has been some criticism (that the act is being used to lure Northern industrial plants to the South."

Electric Tower in Italy Blasted

BOLZANO, Italy (AP) — Saboteurs dynamited an electric pylon Tuesday night in Italy's troubled Alto Adige (South Tyrol), then fired machinegun bursts for 15 minutes at investigating troops and police.

The troops and police returned the fire, but apparently no one was hit and the terrorists escaped in the dark. The area, the Val Passer near Ponte Clara, is mostly thick mountain forest.

Another group of terrorists fired shots at a power depot near Appiano but there was no damage.

Red Doctrine Is Above 3 R's

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia's top schoolman told his country's teachers Tuesday their main task is putting across Communist doctrine, not the three R's.

In an address to the annual National Teachers' Conference, Education Minister F. Kahuda declared that "development of Communist education continues to remain the paramount task of the schools," the Czech news agency Ceteka reported.

Probers to Check Taxes of Gamblers

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate racket probers, having heard and seen how gamblers stack the deck in their favor with rigged equipment and crooked officials, explore today the ways hoodlums cheat on taxes and prey on race tracks.

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Investigations subcommittee, called for testimony from Internal Revenue Commissioner Mortimer E. Caplin and Angelo Rosetti, a Boston race wire operator.

The subcommittee described Rosetti as the operator of Sports Day Weekly, a race wire service. In Tuesday's first day of hearings, the senators witnessed some startling demonstration of paraphernalia used by crooked gamblers in illicit card and dice rooms.

They also heard how off-the-track bookmakers try to get the jump on their bettors by constantly attempting to get reports of horse race results well before any customer can get the word. The fast report gives the bookie a dual advantage: a chance to accept more bets on horses that lost and a cast iron assurance no patron can bet a known winner.

The subcommittee heard an estimate that the total play handled by illegal handbooks may be $50 billion a year, from which the bookies' profit would be about $5.5 billion.

John Scarne, who described himself as "somewhat of an expert" in protecting the public from being fleeced by gamblers, gave the estimates and charged that $750 million of this money is spent each year to "corrupt law enforcement officers."

He said he is employed by the Hilton hotel chain and the governments of Panama and Puerto Rico.

Scarne described elaborate tricks used to introduce marked cards into poker and other card games. Of every five poker games where the stakes are as high as $10, he said, at least one of them has a professional cheat among the players. He estimated that 40,000 marked decks are in use in the country.

Name Postmaster for Piggott

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy Tuesday nominated Gerald Sale to be postmaster at Piggott, Ark. The nomination is subject to confirmation by the Senate.

A manufacturer, testified his firm sells loaded dice, marked cards, rose-colored contact lenses with which "to read the backs" of marked cards, and trick mirrors used by gamblers to see the hands of other card players. He said he is president of the H. E. Mason Co., also known as the K.C. Card Co.

Final Atlas Is Fired in Pacific

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—An Atlas intercontinental missile thundered over the ocean from this base Tuesday, marking completion of a program to incorporate changes and improvements in the ballistic weapon.

An Air Force spokesman said it was an operational training launch, ending the Golden Ram project.

First run of the Pony Express took 10 days to cover the nearly 2,000 miles between St. Joseph, Mo., and Sacramento, Calif.

School Aid Split Into 2 Bills

House Democratic leadership today decided to split the administration's federal aid for schools program into two separate bills.

The decision — Latest move in a series of maneuvers aimed at salvaging as much of the President's proposals as possible — was announced after a meeting of those concerned in Speaker Sam Rayburn's office.

Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., chairman of the House Education Committee, told newsmen all four elements of the package proposed by Secretary of Welfare Abraham Ribicoff would be retained in one bill or the other. The bills are to be drafted tonight.

This is the way Powell said the Ribicoff school package would be split up:

Aid to impacted areas (school districts with a high percentage of children of federal employees) and public elementary school construction will be in one bill.

The aid to higher education plan, sponsored by Rep. Edith Green, D-Ore., will be placed in a separate bill.

The fourth element of the package—extension of the National Defense Education Act which is aimed at strengthening teaching of mathematics, science and languages—will be tacked onto one bill or the other after another meeting Thursday, Powell said.

Searcy Firm Low on Paris School

PARIS, Ark. (AP) — Apparent low of 10 bids for construction of a new high school here was submitted Tuesday by Cone Stowers, Inc., of Searcy which offered to do the work for $366,175. Hal Kenamer, school superintendent, said each of the 10 bidders submitted offers on seven alternate plans which might change the final contract amount. Paris residents approved a $429,000 bond issue to finance the project.

High Court to Rule on Tax

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — It will be up to the Arkansas Supreme Court to decide whether the Murphy Corp. of El Dorado owes $14,829 in back income taxes. Murphy claimed in an income tax statement filed last December that it had no income subject to taxation as a result of a carry-over loss. A 1957 act permits corporations to claim tax credit for losses incurred prior to enactment of the law. The Revenue Department maintains Murphy owes $14,823.

Promotion of NLR Police Hit

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A suit attacking promotion of 10 North Little Rock police patrolmen to the rank of sergeant was filed in Pulaski Chancery Court Tuesday. Plaintiffs are 20 members of the city's Fraternal Order of Police. The suit maintains officers with more experience and qualifications were bypassed in the recent promotion list.

Fines Enforce Injunction

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — As long as Local 270 of the United Furniture Workers of America adheres to a June 15 injunction it will not have to pay $750 of a $1,000 fine assessed Tuesday. Chancellor Hugh Bland set the condition when he ordered the fine for union violation of a June 15 injunction against violence and mass assembly in a strike at the Fort Smith Chair Co.

Nuclear Seminar Opens at Spa

HOT SPRINGS (AP) — The Southwest Seminar on Nuclear Energy opens its exhibits to the public Saturday and high school science students from Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas are expected to view them. The exhibition will be open through Sept. 4 and State Education Commissioner Arch Ford has urged school superintendents to use school buses to bring students. Ford is chairman of the seminar's education committee.

$400,000 Art Classic in London Gone

By ANTHONY WHITE

LONDON (AP)—Detectives believe that the thief who stole the $392,000 Goya portrait of the Duke of Wellington hid it for more than 12 hours in Britain's National Gallery, then walked out with it under a topcoat or in a briefcase.

The 19th century masterpiece was taken from its place in the gallery Monday night. The theft was discovered Tuesday after the gallery opened.

The head and chest portrait of the Duke, Britain's victor at Waterloo, was last seen by the gallery's security guards at 7:40 p.m. A guard noticed it was gone at 10:08 p.m. and reported it, but it was thought it had been moved to another part of the building since the fragile panel on which it was painted was due for repair.

The theft was established after the gallery's staff reported for work Tuesday morning. Detectives combed the big classic-style building on Trafalgar Square for 40 hours. There was no sign of forced entry and no word that significant fingerprints had been found.

Investigators evolved this theory: The thief hid himself inside the gallery just before closing time. From his hiding place he timed the movements of the five night security guards. Then he nipped out when the room was empty, grabbed the painting and scurried back to his hiding place. When the gallery filled with visitors in the morning, he calmly walked out with his lot.

The painting measured 25 1/2 by 21 1/2 inches, small enough to go into an oversize briefcase or under a voluminous topcoat.

Guards were placed on airfields and ports amid speculation that the theft was the work of the gang believed responsible for a rash of art thefts in France. Only 10 days ago eight Cezanne paintings valued at $2 million were stolen from the museum at Louvre-Provence.

The Cezannes were covered by insurance but the Goya was not. A British Treasury spokesman explained that government property is not insured, "whether it is battleships, buildings or pictures."

Cooley Gets Life in Wife Murder Case

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP)—Spade Cooley, who parlayed six girls and an old fiddle into fame and fortune as the "King of Western Swing," was sentenced to life in prison Tuesday for the brutal murder of his wife.

The unexpected climax of the case followed a dramatic meeting between opposing attorneys and Superior Court Judge William L. Bradshaw while Cooley was preparing to show he was insane April 3 when he beat and strangled his wife, Ella Mae, 37, to death.

The jury which Saturday found Cooley guilty of first-degree murder was to rule first on the insanity plea and then set the penalty of Cooley born Donnell Clyde 50 years ago in a storm cellar near Pack Saddle Creek, Okla., was judged sane.

The nickname Spade came after the entertainer once drew five spade flushes in a poker game.

After the conference in Judge Bradshaw's chambers, Cooley's attorney, P. Basil Lambros, conferred for more than an hour with his client, who then waived his right to a sanity trial and also waived his right to have the jury set the sentence.

Persons serving life sentences in California normally are eligible for parole after seven years. Cooley said he hit his wife after she had told him she was joining a free live cult and told him of the initiation rites.

Cooley showed up at the gate of Republic Pictures in 1934 with a fiddle and six cents. Cowboy star Roy Rogers got him a job, and Spade became Roy's stand-in.

Later the Scotch-Irish-Cherokee Indian fiddler built his own band and became famous as a radio star. He also wrote songs, including "Shame, Shame on You."

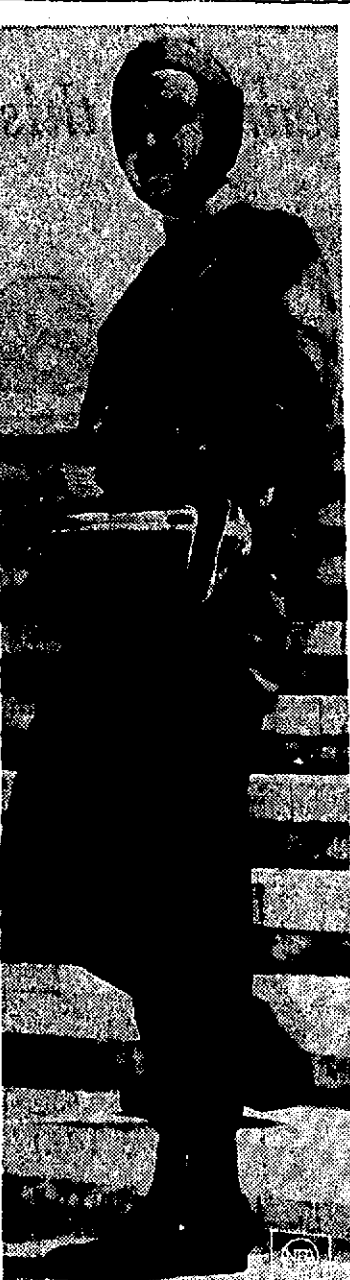

One for the Road — and Horse, Too

VALDOSTA, Ga. (AP) — A South Georgia farmer and his elderly horse are drinking buddies. Most of the time Samuel M. Weldon, 68, and the horse, Brownie, 27, are working.

But on off-days they head for town five miles away.

After Weldon has downed a beer, he orders another bottle and feeds it to Brownie.

The farmer said that on occasion Brownie has taken him home stopping for red lights and obeying all traffic regulations.

Bishop Barth of Episcopal Church Dies

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — The Rt. Rev. Theodore Nott Barth, 63, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Tennessee since 1953, died Tuesday of cancer. He was the diocese's sixth bishop since its organization in 1829. He was born in Mount Savage, Md.

LISBON, Portugal (AP)—Adm. Anibal de Sousa Dias, 86, Portuguese republican revolutionary, died Tuesday. He was a leader of the Oct. 5, 1910, revolution against the monarchy.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Bilby Miller, 41, novelist and co-author of 33 mysteries with Bob Wade under the name of Wade Miller, died Monday of a heart attack.

LONDON (AP) — Sir Charles Kingsley Webster, 75, historian and former president of the British Academy, died Tuesday. He was professor emeritus at the London School of Economics.

LONDON (AP)—G. Ward Price, 75, one of Britain's great war reporters, died Tuesday. He was special correspondent for Lord Rothermere's Daily Mail for 40 years and recently served as director of Associated Newspapers, the Rothermere company running the Daily Mail and London Evening News. He was born in Chester, England.

CHAMONIX, France (AP) — Helen Hielt Waller, 47, director of the New York Herald Tribune Forum, died Tuesday of internal injuries suffered while mountain climbing last month. During World War II she joined the Paris staff of the National Broadcasting Company. Mrs. Waller, who joined the Herald Tribune's Forum department in 1945, was born in Pekin, Ill.

NLR Man Called by McClellan

WASHINGTON (AP) — C. Julian Lytle of North Little Rock, Ark., has been subpoenaed to testify before the Senate Investigations Subcommittee's gambling investigation, possibly next week.

North Little Rock and Little Rock police records show a C. J. Lytle was arrested several times in the late 1930s and early 1940s on various gambling charges. Other records show he purchased federal wagering stamps for 1955-56, 1957-58 and 1960-61.

Jerome S. Adlerman, subcommittee counsel, said Tuesday Lytle was subpoenaed for questioning about telephone race wire service received at Little Rock from New Orleans.

Lytle could not be reached for comment Tuesday night.

The subcommittee, headed by Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., is known to have subpoenaed one other Arkansas resident for testimony. He is Owen (Owney) Madden, New York prohibition era mobster who now lives at Hot Springs.

THE STORY: Civic leaders of Wonderful, Cal., who are planning genuine Indian dances to attract tourists, hit a snag when the idea is opposed by Mrs. Belinda Snoddy.

Chapter III

Same Godykoontz sat in a folding steel chair and watched the governing body of Wonderful tramp into the council room. The mayor and his henchmen took their places behind desks on a low platform, while lesser officials, the chief of police, city attorney, water commissioner, and others, plunked into hard seats on the main deck, as befitted their stature in affairs.

Theo B. Stone, the building inspector, was already asleep in a rocking chair that had a cushion.

The Belinda Snoddy bloc sat in a compact group on the right side of the room, ready to rise and spread the alarm.

Black-haired, smooth-cheeked, with his own teeth, Godykoontz was a powerfully built man of 55. For 39 years he had been associated with the grocery business in Wonderful, the last 19 as owner of his own supermarket.

All this he took in stride, without complaint, remembering worse days when he was a delivery boy at $30 a month, and terribly in love with a girl named Amanda Merbs, whose father made odd-lasting bootleg whiskey in a chicken house in West Town.

Godykoontz had been full set to marry Amanda Merbs, so he naturally thought she held the same desire. On the day he got a ten-dollar raise he rushed out to her house to propose, only to discover that she had run off with a bomber brakeman the night before.

A year later Godykoontz married Pearl Krasmyck, sixth daughter of a farmer who bought so much sugar that Godykoontz was sure he was using it for something other than canning peaches, all of which caused his boss to remark, "I never saw a kid so bent to marry a bootlegger's daughter."

Pearl was all right. She bore Godykoontz four fine sons, all of whom set up their professions far from Wonderful just as fast as he financed them through college and bought law books and dental and medical equipment for them.

Godykoontz came home one day and saw a 21-inch box in the living room where the record player used to sit.

"I thought we were going to get along without TV."

"Ya want to be a stupe all your life? There's educational stuff every day on there. Ya want to talk intelligent to the boys when they come home, or just sit around like ya been doing and say how much social security taxes gone up?"

"I've never had any trouble talking to them."

"About business, yeah!" Pearl snorted, a real snort which she learned from horses on her father's farm. "Ya ever talk about art and stuff to the boys? Hat?"

"I don't know nothing about art."

"Now you can learn." Thereupon Pearl turned on the TV. Bob Huckabee, who had sold the monster to her, had taught her how to turn it on, but somehow he neglected to teach her how to turn it off, and this oversight he never corrected.

Behind their steel desks on the low platform the council was, from left to right: Art Heidegger, laundry owner, severe, scholarly in appearance from years of reading home medical encyclopedias; Frank Fattig, oil distributor, owl-witted; Mayor George Rainbolt, lumber dealer, a square-jawed man in horn rims; Bob Huckabee, Mulligan Electric, six feet five, with a crew cut that left a shiny spot on top of his head; Pete Merbs, restaurateur, a round little man, a well removed cousin of the long-ago Amanda; and Dr. MacBeth, red-haired, tough of eye, jaw, and disposition.

"Mrs. Snoddy," the mayor said, "I assume you're the spokesman of your group."

Belinda Snoddy bounced up. A plump, motherly-looking woman, she was, blue of hair and eye. In 1937, her husband, a petroleum geologist, had disappeared suddenly. There was no evidence of foul play, although the sheriff had been searching the river for him for weeks. One day during the search, a deputy waving out to examine some clothing wrapped around a rock was tumbled end over end in some rough water, losing one shoe, his glasses, and a wallet containing some highly prized pornography.

Understandably miffed, when he managed to crawl ashore 200 yards downstream, the deputy exclaimed, "What makes you think somebody threw Snoddy in the river, Sheriff?"

The sheriff, who knew Mrs. Snoddy well, said, "I don't. I think he jumped in the river himself."

He hadn't, for he wrote a year later from Nevada, saying he wasn't coming home—ever. Belinda promptly divorced him, receiving in settlement a splendid income from oil leases and the house which faced Bascomb Park.

Chapter IV

There were twelve spear carriers with Belinda Snoddy tonight. She spoke. "It has come to our attention that certain elements in this community wish to dedicate our park to the holding of riotous pagan festivals. I think we'll all agree that it was not the intention of our illustrious pioneer, Phineas P. Bascomb, when he gave the land for the park that bears his name to his city, that it ever be used for such a purpose. On the contrary—"

"Just a moment, Mrs. Snoddy," the mayor said. "I think it's 80 years too late to explore the intentions of Colonel Bascomb. His deed to the city carried no restrictions, I believe." He looked to Ury Wattlesby, the city attorney. "Is that right, Ury?"

"Yes," said Wattlesby, and then, worried by the fact that he had been caught by surprise and made a forthright statement, he reverted to type. "However, I have not examined the deed lately. Even if it does not carry specific restrictions prohibiting pagan festivals—I mean, Indian dances—there could be implied restrictions. Take the case of Petuzzi vs. Frakes, in Alabama, 1912..."

While the learned counsel filled the room with legal smog, Stalcup gathered his wits and sized up the opposition.

Mrs. Snoddy of course was formidable. Scarcely any matter that was none of her business was too difficult for her.

Her most trusted lieutenants were beside her, Y. O. Sniggers and Herk Myrtlebine.

Myrtlebine in 1921 achieved fame by leading a group opposed to smallpox vaccinations in the schools during an epidemic. He almost won. He never quite reached the same heights again, although in 1956 he did create quite a stir when he demanded that the city stop chlorinating the water supply on the grounds that it was causing sterility.

Belinda came up as if she had rear engine drive, almost dumping Myrtlebine to the floor, for he had been leaning close as he whispered words of wisdom.

"This latest attempt to defile our park is a gross outrage, I submit. We whose property has been greatly depreciated in value by the stubborn persistence of city officials in allowing Bascomb Park to become a loitering place, a picnic grounds for tourists, a lover's lane, a stamping ground for dogs, will fight to the last breath to prevent Mr. Stalcup and his confederates at the chamber of commerce from foisting this new infamy upon us."

"What's so bad about it?" the mayor asked. "The paper said they proposed to have an Indian ceremonial dance two nights a week. Right, Bill?"

Stalcup nodded.

Sniggers had risen. "I've been looking into the statistics of drunkenness in the town of Cortez. They prove that 80 per cent of the violations there are the direct result of Indians and their drinking habits." He gave considerable misinformation, concluding, "I ask you, do we want that sort of thing here?"

"I think one side of the case has been stated well enough," the mayor said. "Bill?"

"Let me say that this program isn't even set," Stalcup began. "I've called the Ute council. They're going to let me know if they have any kids interested in having jobs here during the summer. They didn't seem to be interested, so it may be that we're fighting over something that may not ever come about."

"I'll will," Belinda Snoddy said. "I know you and your confederates of old."

Stalcup grinned. "Me and my confederates had in mind to hold dances between eight and nine on Friday and Saturday night. We feel that it will help hold tourists in town. It will be free, of course. And supervised — no drunken brawling or scalping allowed, I can assure you."

"Nonsense!" Mrs. Snoddy rapped. "Where there's Indians there's drinking. I suppose you've forgotten when the railroad had Navajos here."

"That was different," Stalcup answered. "That was a whole work battalion. Our group of Utes, if we get them, will be small, picked. They'll be young men who—"

"Young ones, bah!" Mrs. Snoddy sprang up so forcefully that Myrtlebine's neck was almost snapped. "I suppose it was not young Indians who chased that Ortega girl up the street like centaurs before the police—accidentally, I might add — came along and restrained them."

"Helped them," Chief Wronker said. "She'd lifted a wallet from one of them. It's in the records."

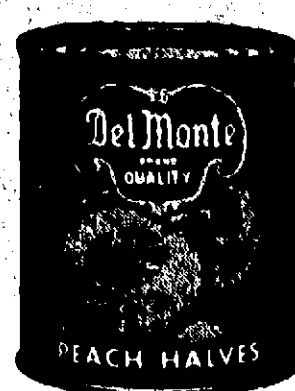

"Oh, good heavens! The police records in this town!"

VIENNA ROAST

3½ to 4 pounds chuck roast 2 tsp. salt 12 dried prunes
2 tablespoons cooking oil ½ tsp. pepper 15 dried apricot halves
1 large onion, sliced ½ tsp. cinnamon 1 cup cooking sherry
¼ cup brown sugar, ¼ tsp. ginger or ginger ale packed firm ½ cup water 6 medium-size potatoes, sliced

Put prunes and apricots to soak in sherry or ginger ale. Heat oil in heavy kettle or Dutch oven; brown meat on both sides. Add onions and saute until golden. Sprinkle meat with sugar, spices, and seasonings. Add water; cover tightly. Simmer 2 ½ hours or until meat pierces easily with fork. Layer potatoes and fruit around meat; add any remaining sherry or ginger ale. Cover and simmer 30-45 minutes longer or until meat and potatoes are tender. Serves 6.
